

What is the teacher doing (How are they teaching)?	What are the students doing (How are they learning)?
Monitoring a student changing the oil in his own car. Discussing with a small group what was needed in the transmission of a vehicle. Students had hands on experience fixing cars as many were their own vehicles or members of the community. Students were identifying the causes and reasons to why vehicles were not working and brainstorming ideas on what they needed to do to get them back running and out on the roads.	Cleaning up an oil spill Organizing tools Looking for tools Hands on (Trial and error) w/ guidance from Mr. Moore. Their peers would also assist. Students were using their own vehicles and figuring out how to maintain them. The principal's car was a vehicle that they were charged to work on. Students can find automotive jobs right out of highschool and get certification on it.